From a snowy Wisconsin

Dear Robert,

Thanks for the write-up of Frances Curtis, Jr. I had not heard much of that family for some time, as I haven't been down to his brother's for maple products. The brother lives not too far from the Reeds and has a sugar making outfit.

I hope you got Margaret's thank-you, for she could not understand why it was returned until she checked with "Big Chief" and found she had the wrong address.

I'm enclosing the last letter I had from Larry Downey, as I thought it simpler than re-writing the part about wanting copies of the paper. His first wife was a
